CITY OF WASHINGTON, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 21, 1851.

NOTICE TO PRE-EMPTION CLAIMANTS.

Your obedient servant, ALFRED HENNEN.

Nour obedient servant,
ALFRED HENNEN.

Reports of cases argued and determined in the circuit court of the United States for the first circuit, from 1812 to 1851, as follows:
Gallison's Reports.—Reports of cases argued and determined in the circuit court of the United States for the first circuit, from 1812 to 1815. Second edition, with additional notes and references. 2 vols., 8vo. Boston, 1825.

"I should omit doing justice to my own feelings, as well as to the eause of truth, if I were not to select the decisions in Gallison's and Mason's Reports as specimens of pre-eminent merit. They may fairly be piaced upon a level with the hest productions of the Engsish Admirally for deep and accurate learning, as well as for the highest ability and wisdom in decision."—3 Kent. 20; (2), 527.
Mason (William P., —Report of Cases in the Circuit Court of the United States for the First Circuit, from 1816 to 1829. 5 vols., 8vo.

"These reports comprise the decisions of Mr. Justice Story on the first circuit of the United States, and followed in order after Mr.
Gallison's reports. The decisions relate to a great variety of subjects—constitutional, admirally, personal, and real law, and chancery—and are characterized by the profound learning, acutences, and thoroughness of research, which are such eminent traits of their author. They will bear a favorable comparison, in point of learning and practical utility, with the best volumes of the English reports."

Summer's Reports. Summer (Charles.)—Reports of Cases argued and determined in the Circuit Court of the United States for the First Circuit. J vols., 8vo.

"These volumes contain the decisions of Mr. Justice Story, and form a continuation to the series of Gallison, and Mason. The decisions in the present volumes relate particularly to questions of the form of the Circuit Court of the United States for the First Circuit. 3 vols., 8vo.

"These volumes form a continuation to the series of Gallison, monned by Mr. Justice Story, who died while the last opinion ever pro twanty-eight.
